

5 WORDS TO CHANGE YOUR LIFE

“Sorry”

Introduction

The right words spoken in the right way at the right time will change your life. "Yes" will open new doors. "No" can avoid disaster. Joy is found in "Enough" and new life is found in "Help" and "Sorry". God will do big things with small words.

Pray

Don't forget that if anything significant happens, it's because God moved. Start by asking God to bless this time.

Practice Truth

1. What was most memorable from the weekend on the word "Sorry?"
2. What are some bad ways of saying "Sorry"?
3. Why is it difficult for us to say "Sorry"?
4. If you haven't already, Read Acts 5:1-12. What was wrong with what Ananias and Sapphira did when they sold their possessions and gave a portion to the community? What do you think their motivation might have been?
5. How does saying "Sorry" lead to relational success with those closest to you and God above you?

Leader's Tip

End your group on time, or early. When the group time officially ends, don't force people out. If they linger and mingle for awhile, that's a great sign the group is getting off to a healthy start.

Do Life Together

How will you respond this week to the call for taking a fearless and searching moral inventory; confessing your defects to God, to yourself and to one other person; and doing whatever you can to make right what you have made wrong?
