

Learn Courage

Introduction

Drift happens—usually it's not even noticeable. A relationship you used to value just doesn't mean as much anymore. Spending time with God becomes less important. How can you stop the drift and return joy to the places and people you love?

Pray

Don't forget that if anything significant happens, it's because God moved. Start by asking God to bless this time.

Practice Truth

1. Who is an example of someone you believe is courageous? What makes them so?
2. Are you a courageous person? Why or why not?
3. What was something that tested your faith this week? It can be anything from serious to silly.
4. Daniel 3 is about a group of friends faced with pressure to break the first two commandments. Which commandments do you feel pressured to break? (For a list see Exodus 20)
5. We heard that a tested faith is a trusted faith. What does that mean to you?
6. Last weekend Dirk shared that courage is saying, "I believe that God can, expect that he will, but trust if he doesn't." Which of these three is the most difficult for you and why?

Do Life Together

Knowing that courage is believing God can, expecting that he will, and trusting if he doesn't, where do you need to take a dare on God?
